Aug. 11-13, AETA International Trade Show - Oaks, PA . The American Equestrian Trade Association (AETA) announces registration is open for the 2018 AETA International Trade Show. Operating under new management, the show immerses Equestrian trade exhibitors and buyers in three days of viewing English and Western merchandise, networking opportunities with industry experts as well as educational sessions.

Retail buyers have exclusive access to new industry products, and can buy many of them on the spot from exhibitors at a discount. More than 150 companies and more than 400 booths will be participating in this year's show.

AETA retailer members can register to receive a "golden ticket" for a free one-night hotel and $100 in AETA bucks (must place a minimum order of $250 for every $50 in AETA bucks used. Limit one free hotel room night per company at participating hotel. Golden Tickets do not cover hotel taxes and fees.).

This exposition of equestrian products and services is not open to the general public. Equine product manufacturers and buyers can learn more about the show and register at www.aeta.us; 443-720-0330 x112
